

2024 AGORA CONTEMPORARY GYNAECOLOGY FOR GENERAL PRACTITIONERS

Course Director: A/Prof Alex Ades

Course Date: 07th of September, 2024

Course Time: From 8:00AM to 5:00PM (Morning tea and lunch provided)

Venue: Epworth Hospital Richmond Auditorium, 89 Bridge Road, Richmond, VIC 3121

COURSE DETAILS

The Course provides a comprehensive update on women's health issues. Presented by specialists in the area, it is targeted to general practitioners with the objective of improving their daily practice and the overall care of women. A thorough and interactive discussion of the most relevant topics in women's health.

Educational Activities

7
hours

Reviewing Performance

6
hours

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Debora Steves

education@agoracentre.com.au

03 9421 2533

agoracentre.com.au/medical-education

Early Registration: $300 GST inclusive (received 6 weeks before course date)
Standard Registration: $350 GST inclusive

COURSE PROGRAM

- Hysteroscopy and the treatment of uterine pathology
- Long acting reversible contraception
- Menopause, HRT
- Uterine fibroids - current management strategies
- Ovarian cysts - a practical guide
- Endometriosis - diagnosis and treatment
- Post-menopausal bleeding
- Pelvic organ prolapse and urinary incontinence

LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Identify current women's health issues specifically abnormal uterine bleeding, temporary and permanent contraception, HRT and post menopausal bleeding
2. Diagnose and manage common women's health issues
3. Discuss new therapeutic modalities related to common women's health issues with patients
4. Evaluate management strategies for patients with common women's health issues
5. Use efficient referral pathways to improve patient care and safety

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Debora Steves

education@agoracentre.com.au

03 9421 2533

agoracentre.com.au/medical-education

Apply Online:

